

The Savior

(To the witchfinder Johannes Aagaard)

Satan is the opposite of God, you say. But God is Omnipotent and Omnipresent, while Satan - being the opposite - would be none existent and powerless. Simple as it is, I can not understand why you believe in Him.

For turning down Jesus I admitted that God was Omnipresent and Nameless. Turning down your Salvation in the afterlife, I admitted my contempt for Death. I ask myself which of us are more alike your idol? May be the reason why you hate me ...

- Alas! - aphorisms on the Path. Bjarne S. Pedersen, 1996 e.v.